(Song from 1993 Regenwetter Reunion)

All In nineteen forty two, Ben took a little trip,
 Over to Vancouver where he met a Hendon chick,
 He mooed and he crooned and in just a little while,
 He and Aggie Kiland were a strollin' down the aisle.

 All Well married life had started and they began a movin'
 Across the Rocky Mountains to the prairies down below,
 They cranked up the Dodge and they began a groovin'
 Now there's twice as many as there was a while ago....

 Len: They saw the barren prairies and it seemed a gruesome sight,
 So they struck out for the coast where the future looked so bright,
 They had two sons; their names were Len and Lou,
 They weren't very pretty so they had another two.

 All: Well married life had started and they began a movin'
 Across the Rocky Mountains to the prairies down below,
 They cranked up the Dodge and they began a groovin'
 Now there's twice as many as there was a while ago....

 Art: Then came Poncho, and he wasn't much for size,
 And then came Binbo, with a twinkle in his eyes,
 Back to the coast of which they were so fond,
 And along came Bernie a pretty little blonde.

- All: Married life had started and they began a movin'
Across the Rocky Mountains to the prairies down below,
They cranked up the Dodge and they began a groovin'
Now there's twice as many as there was a while ago.....
- Don: They fired up their passion till they had three boys around,
And farmed round Saskatchewan till another boy was bound,
Back across the mountains where they has a blonde beauty,
Settled in Alberta where they had their final CUTIE.
- All: Well married life had started and they began a movin'
Across the Rocky Mountains to the prairies down below,
They cranked up the Dodge and they began a groovin'
Now there's twice as many as there was a while ago.....
- Gals: They moved to Alberta where the oil boom was on,
Then they settled down in Breton, but not for very long,
Soon they moved to Buck Creek along a country road,
Where they had their final daughter, and built their own abode.
- All: Well married life had started and they began a movin'
Across the Rocky Mountains to the prairies down below,
They cranked up the Dodge and they began a groovin'
Now there's twice as many as there was a while ago
Hup 2,3,4, more and more.....

Ben was born on a farm near Romance, Saskatchewan on August 31, 1920. Here he lived with his parents until one winter that he was in New Westminster, BC, where he met Agnes Kiland. After a whirlwind romance, they married in New Westminster and headed back to Romance. It was here that Leonard, Louis, Arthur, and Don were born. While on a trip back to New Westminster for the winter, their daughter Bernadette was born. They continued to live in Romance on the family farm until they moved to Breton, Alberta in 1957. It was here that the oil boom had hit and lured Ben, Agnes and troops. Ben then moved the family to Buck Creek, Alberta in 1958 where he began his mechanics career. Don is the 4th born son to Ben and Agnes Regenwetter. He arrived on February 15, 1949 while they were living in the town of Romance, Sask. He was raised in various Saskatchewan communities around Quill Lake until the age of 6 years old. The family pulled up stakes and moved to Breton, Alberta where Don entered grade 2. After one year in Breton, they moved to Buck Creek where Don finished grade school and high school. Eventually Don finished his post secondary school at NAIT where he achieved his journeyman ticket as an instrumentation mechanic technician.

At the age of 26, Don was completing his final year of technical school when he courted and married Myrtle Nelson, also of Buck Creek, Alberta. After living one year in Kelowna, BC, Don and Myrt moved back to Buck Creek and ran a service station for two years. Don closed the station after the two years and decided to try his hand at trucking. Don purchased a vacuum truck in 1978 and built a trucking business called "Valley Vacuum". He centered his operation around Drayton Valley where he purchased a small 40 acre farm and also started a tree farm. While trucking and tree farming, Don and Myrt had two daughters, Dixie Lynn and Adell Wanda, who both still live in Drayton Valley.

At the time of writing, Don and Myrt still have a vacuum truck working on the drilling rigs in Alberta and BC. They still have the farm which has grown to 140 acres and they now raise Black Angus cows instead of trees. They call their farm "Black Gem Cattle Company" and raise performance breeding stock. Don also has a brush mowing company called "Tazsy Kats", that mows oilfield pipelines and power and gas right of ways. They also own and rent four bobcats in the oilpatch.

On February 4, 1998, Don and Myrt were blessed with a grandchild. Dixie named her daughter Aysia Dawn.

Don and Myrt pass any of their relaxation time by golfing, camping, quading, and snowmobiling. They still live 10 km North of Drayton Valley, Alberta.

FAMILY TALE OF BERNADETTE LEE (REGENWETTER) DAUGHTER OF BEN AND AGNES REGENWETTER

Long ago there was a little girl born to Ben and Agnes Regenwetter (to their delight) and they named her Bernadette (from the song so it's told). She was fortunate to have four wonderful brothers (she can say this now) that made her life interesting. Their names were Leonard, Louie, Arthur, and Donald.

She was able to enjoy her life in New Westminster, BC for only two short weeks when her Mom and Dad headed East to a new home in Breton, Alberta. She liked this place but the town was obviously too damn big, so they were off again to yet a smaller place, Buck Creek, Alberta. Life was good, Dad was working at a garage only 1/2 block from home.

All was well until her little sister came along and she was no longer the only adorable girl in the family. She had to share this honor with a new found female, Cathy. Oh yes she was cute and got all the attention, but Bernadette won out. You see, she played a trick on Cathy. She liked her too, and soon (well not too soon) they became good friends. Secretly though, between you and me, she was glad there was no more competition in her family. They were happy to be eight people living in one huge house of 700 sq. ft.

Soon enough her brothers started leaving the nest (this made the house seem even bigger) and she's sure she missed them all. Well, to make life more interesting each one of these brothers brought home a pretty wife.....and then came the nieces and nephews much to the delight of Mom and Dad. They moved into a bigger home just to accommodate the kids when they visited.

Soon the time would come when this little girl would meet the most handsome prince in the world. Her name would soon be changed to Mrs. Lance Lee and she would be happier than she had ever been. In a short time they too were taking home to Mom and Dad their precious son, Dirk Ward Lee. He loved them only briefly, 6 1/2 months, then left to spend eternity waiting for his Mom and Dad in Heaven. This couple was then blessed with a most beautiful daughter, Melissa Ann Lee. The date was July 30, 1971 and with her came all the love in the world.

They also lived in Buck Creek, but no city life for them. They lived on a farm for nine years, then moved into Drayton Valley, Alberta to be closer to Lance's job at Tuboscope, where he became Manager.

One short year later, the entrepreneurial spirit hit this happy couple. For the next ten years they were in the dry cleaning business, owning three plants and several depots. Throughout this endeavor their loving daughter was beside them, helping them along the way.

As time would have it, Melissa too sought independence and moved to Calgary to attend SAIT to become a Travel Consultant. While in Calgary she met the love of her life, Ron Sommerfeld. This happy couple married May 18, 1991. Melissa worked for the Rider Travel Group until yearnings of motherhood hit her. On May 3, 1993, Taylor Ward Sommerfeld came into their lives and soon Rowan Emerson Sommerfeld came to play with his brother on August 22, 1995. Indeed they did become good friends but something was missing.....a sister was in order. Mom and Dad Sommerfeld met the challenge and gave them a sister on March 27, 1998 and they called her Caymen Belle Sommerfeld. This happy family of five still live in Calgary.

Many years have passed for Bernadette since the day she came into this world to make her parents dream come true on July 17, 1952. Many people have passed through her life, but the ones most precious to her Lance, Dirk, Melissa, Ron, Taylor, Rowan, and Caymen are the love of her life. Throughout the years she has been very happy and thanks the Lord daily for all the love she has received over the years.

My name is Cathy Tryon (Regenwetter). I am the last flash of Ben and Agnes' frolics!! I was born in Rimbey, Alberta but Mom and Dad resided in the big town of Buck Creek, where Dad was a mechanic by trade. Dad eventually purchased his own garage there and we continued to live in Buck Creek until I married Jonah Tryon and moved to Drayton Valley. Mom and Dad eventually saw the lights and moved there too.

Jonah and I were married in Drayton Valley, on January 31, 1976 and made our home there as well. In 1977, we had our first son, Jason Chester and in 1979, we had another son, Eric William Bernard, both born in Drayton Valley. We have dabbled in oilfield related businesses over the last 22 years. We are still self-employed in the oilfield.

Mom (Agnes) is living in Drayton Valley, remarried after my dad passing away many years ago and goes by the name of Agnes Simants, married to George for the past 6 years.

Our son Jason still lives at home in Drayton and is employed in the food industry. Eric is currently living in Edmonton taking up the trade of a millwright. Neither son is married.

Leonard Felix Regenwetter

Name: Leonard Felix Regenwetter
Birth: March 4, 1923
Death: July 1942

Branch of Family: Son of Felix Regenwetter

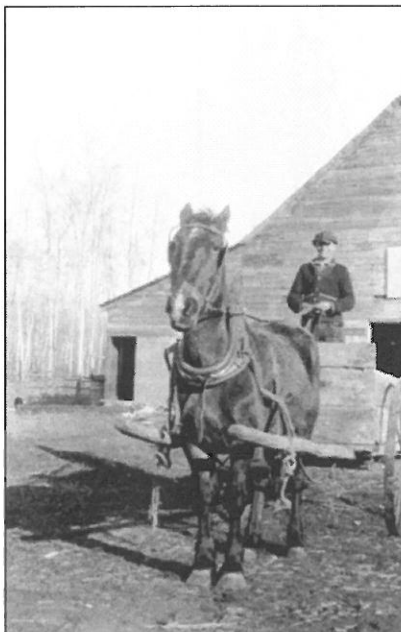

(written by Dennise Martin)

Len, the seventh and youngest son of Felix and Julianna, was born March 4, 1923. Whether or not he was born on the homestead I am not sure. In the same year, Ted was hospitalized at St. Elizabeth's Hospital with osteomyelitis in one of the bones of one of his legs. Catherine was rushed to the same hospital; diagnosed with ruptured appendix. She had surgery and after an arduous and lengthy recovery period she went home. Ted succumbed to his illness and was buried at Holy Guardian Angels Cemetery at Englefeld.

Like the rest of his brothers and sisters he walked the three miles to Korbel School. After his older brothers and sisters "struck out on their own" he, Ben and Clara worked the farm with the help of their father who in 1927, had suffered a stroke. The stroke had left him with some paralysis of an arm and a leg. Following Catherine's marriage in 1936 to Frank Therres, the Regenwetters and Frank shared machinery, horses and labor. Len was a hardworking fellow and when time permitted he worked for neighboring farmers. The "dirty-thirties" left farmers with poor weather, poor crops and little if any money. Opportunities for work were scarce, especially work that paid a wage.

I remember Uncle Len as a fellow who liked to tease me and play tricks on me. Aunt Catherine said she thought that was because I was a town kid. Maybe I was just gullible! To a small child, he was a grown up.

In 1941 when Catherine, Frank and their three children moved to the coast, Len went with them. According to Catherine, Len was glad to leave as he believed there would be more and better opportunities in BC. They traveled by train. He left behind his parents and, with the exception of Catherine, all of his brothers and sisters; a big move for an 18 year old. Initially he lived with Catherine and Frank.

Len at home

Transportation was necessary in order to get a job so Len grubbed stumps in return for a motorcycle. Judging from the picture taken at the time, he was a proud owner. Now that transportation had been obtained, he was able to get employment at the Brick Yard in Sullivan. Soon Frank also got employment at the same place. The two would travel there and back on the motorcycle; Len driving, Frank on behind. When the Brick Yard laid him off, Len got a job in a saw mill. While working here, he suffered an eye injury either from a wood chip or a saw tooth. Except for light and dark, he had lost the vision in that eye. The doctor instructed him never to lower his head below the level of his shoulders. The reason for this is unclear but it did hamper his ability to work when he and Joe leased a strawberry farm that was owned by Japanese who were interned by the government due to the war with Japan. This was a seven acre farm with a house. By this time his parents, Clara, and Ben had arrived from Saskatchewan. This house became home for Joe, Ida, their two children, Clara, along with Len and his parents. Everyone worked on the farm. With the help of Catherine, day laborers were recruited to tend to and harvest the crop. Each day laborers were transported to and from the farm by Len in a truck he'd gotten. Len would also move the strawberries to Royal City Slader and Stewart Canary. This work was compatible with the limitations imposed on him by his eye injury. Len traded in his motorcycle on a Model A Ford car.

The family was active in the local Roman Catholic Parish where Fr. Nash was the parish Priest. Len became president of the Catholic Youth Organization. Fr. Nash became a family friend and he became helpful in finding Clara a job at St. Mary's Hospital. Len bought a different car, a Terra Plain, and he gave his Model A to Fr. Nash because his car was laid up in the garage.

The strawberry season was drawing to a close. It was very hot on this July day in 1942. Len and some of his friends headed off to Bear Creek pool for a swim to cool off. This was the day Len's life ended when he failed to surface after dropping off a sharp ledge in the pool. He'd been walking out into the pool with a friend who was unable to swim. His failure to surface was a surprise to friends who'd witnessed the event because Len was able to swim. His body was recovered by a spectator and Fr. Nash called. The death certificate read "Cause unknown" as no water was found in his lungs.

St. Peter's Church was crowded as Fr. Nash read the funeral mass. Len was buried in St. Peter's Cemetery.

(rememberings by Dennise Martin)

The last of Julianna and Felix's twelve children, Clara Ann, was born on August 31, 1925. She had four older sisters, Lena, Mary, Teresa and Catherine. Of her seven older brothers she would never know Ted and Louie as both died before she was born.

Her early years were spent on the homestead, attending school and helping her father and brothers Ben and Len, run the family farm. When she was only two years old, her father suffered a stroke which left him with some paralysis of one arm and leg, thus limiting the kind and amount of work he was able to do. Her help running the farm was needed as her older brothers and sisters left the home to establish their own lives; Frank left in 1927 to take his father to Texas to recuperate over the winter, he found work there and stayed, Hank married in 1928, Lena who'd accompanied Frank and her father, married in 1929, Mary left in about 1928 to work for Mrs. Linda at the Englefeld Hotel and married in 1935, Joe married in 1933, Teresa left to obtain work, Catherine left in 1935 to work for Mr. and Mrs. Wesser and marry in 1937. This left Ben, Len and Clara to work the farm.

Herb, Thelma, Clara and Julie

When Catherine and Frankie Therres moved to BC in 1941, Len went with them. Her father along with Joe, Ida and their two children drove out to BC that same summer. This left Julianna, Clara, and Ben to follow in late fall. By the time they arrived, Joe and Len had leased a strawberry farm which also had a house on the property. Felix, Julianna, Joe, Ida, their two children, Len and Clara moved into the house. I'm unsure of whether or not Ben lived there also. Everyone worked on the strawberry farm along with Catherine.

Julie and Thelma her marriage and the friendship between Mrs. Linda and her daughters had remained so we were frequently at the "hotel". I know that as children we dropped in often usually without any other purpose than to see what was happening and sometimes we'd buy a treat. I considered Aunt Clara to be a very stylish woman. Once I'd seen a studio portrait of her wearing a lace collar and her hair "done up" in little curls all over her head and her nails "frenched". I recall begging her to recreate this look. She patiently explained that the "hair-do" wasn't suitable for work and that she wouldn't be able to do dishes with her nails "frenched". This explanation didn't stop me from asking. Aunt Clara had her tonsils out during this time and while recovering stayed with us. I rather doubt that she was very appreciative of the annoying child that kept asking why she couldn't talk or why she got Jell-O to eat. This was also the era of community dances held at the local hall. I remember one time when Aunt Clara was fixing her hair and putting on make-up while I stood on one leg staring at her. I'd been to wedding dances with my parents but I'd not been to one of these all adult affairs and I desperately wanted to get dressed up and go the dance, too.

Mar and I made our confirmation while Aunt Clara was in Englefeld. Mar chose Aunt Clara as her confirmation sponsor while I chose her best friend, Thelma, as mine. For my confirmation name I chose Ann, Aunt Clara's middle name. We each received a silver chain with a Star of David medallion.

Some time after that, in 1947, we received the exciting news that Aunt Teresa, Uncle Charles, and Bubbles were coming for a visit. At the end of this visit Aunt Clara accompanied them back to the USA.

While working with Teresa and Charles at a roadhouse/nightclub in Star Idaho, she met the man she would marry, Herbert Clayton Kennedy, the cook. They remained in Idaho and their first

Prior to the arrival of the last of his family members to come, Len had become friends with Fr. Nash, the parish priest. Eventually Fr. Nash found employment for Clara at St. Mary's Hospital in New Westminster. She was still employed there when in March 1943 when her mother died in St. Mary's Hospital.

Sometime after Julianna's death, Clara returned to Saskatchewan and was employed by Mrs. Linda at the Englefeld Hotel. While working there she became a close and lifelong friend of Mrs. Linda's youngest daughter, Thelma. Later when Clara's own first daughter was born she was named Thelma Ann.

It is from this period of time that I have recollections of my Aunt Clara. The "Hotel" was less than what is now known as a block away from our home so Aunt Clara was frequently at our home. My mother, Mary, had also worked at the "Hotel" prior to child was born there. Thelma Ann was born in Onterio, Idaho on May 25, 1950. Their second daughter, Julie Kay, may have also been born there sometime in 1952.

Prior to 1957, the family moved to Oklahoma. When Mom traveled by bus to Oklahoma in 1957 they were living in Okmulgee, Oklahoma. Mom made the trip to visit her brother, Frank, whose health was failing as the result of cancer. Pictures show the family reunion as Aunt Teresa was there also. Six years later, in 1963, Mom returned to Okmulgee. This time Keith and I went with her and this time rather than a bus trip, we drove down. This would turn out to be our last visit with Clara and Herb.

One of my most enduring memories of that visit is of Aunt Clara frying corn meal breaded okra. I'd developed a passion for this dish and would eat it at every available opportunity. Herb was a terrific guide and Aunt Clara would join us on our sight seeing tours when she was off duty from the Bell Glass company. One of our tours took us to Oklahoma City where we visited Uncle Frank's gravesite and also to spend the afternoon with Ethel, his widow. Thelma and Julie were about 13 and 11 respectively. They had their long hair cut while we were there and we had a lot of fun trying different hair styles.

Sometime between 1963 and 1966 Clara and Herb divorced and Clara married Bill Brown in 1966. Julie and Thelma remained with their mother and Bill. In the intervening years Clara was diagnosed with cancer and as I recall, received cancer treatment at a Cancer Clinic in Texas. The interventions were unsuccessful and cancer claimed her life when at the age of 53, in 1978, she died.

Theresia Gruendl's inspection card for 1895 voyage (front and back)

The girl in this photograph was originally identified as Julianna Gruendl, however the information on the reverse (right) contradicts this.

The picture was taken by the studio of Otto Böhm, previously named Emile Wangemann, photographer of the court. Everything on the reverse is exclusively in relation with the Studio. Above left side: Medal of award at an Exposition in Nürnberg in 1896 for very good picture, portraits and landscape. Above right: the studio received a prize at an exposition in Freiburg in 1897. Second on the left (Höchste...): Highest honorable mention from her highness the Prince Ludwig of Bayern and Archduke Ferdinand and Grandduke of Toskana ...for the photographer! Last two lines: If you want a copy, you can have it at any time. Enlargement of every picture.

It would seem unlikely for the picture to have been taken prior to 1897. Since Julianna had been in the US since 1895, it would also seem unlikely for it to be her unless she made a return trip to Europe after 1897. Is it her? Another family member? One possibility could be that the photographer used an earlier image of her to create this for advertising purposes.

Dear Julia

It's a long time since you wrote to us.....your mother died so I as a mother have done my duty. I let the...bells ring for you and having a holy mass read for her and wrote to the brothers and sisters that they mustn't forget her. I wrote to all of them that they remember her in their prayers. For the latest news I can tell you that the Schuhbau home was sold and that Martin is now in New Otting and he has only 15 acres and he paid me out with 2500 marks. I live now in Aigen but I hope to go to Munich to visit Alois and he got 2000 marks and Josef and other brothers and sisters live in Munich, too.

And dear Julie a special greeting to your husband from me and your mother's brothers and sisters and all relatives and acquaintances. I am 70 years old and a little sickly and I must carry on living because the dear God wants it so.

Dear Julia don't forget your dear mother. I close my writing and hope to see you again

Your grandmother

(Summary of letter on following page)

Letter from a school friend to Julia when Julia had been married 10 years.

She tells Julia how she stayed at home and looked after the mother until she died. Then her dad was very sick and he died. The dad willed over their place to her brother so she was upset and said she would never get married, so she went to work in Munchen to work in a household and she sent several names and addresses of school friends.

Meine liebe Nichte Julia! München, 16. 8. 1878.

Wie ich von meiner Schwester Elisabeth höre, soll deine Mutter ihr erzählt haben, dass mein Bruder Georg mit deinem Vater zusammen gewesen ist. Dein Vater soll gestorben sein, aber ich weis nicht, wann und wo. Ich möchte dich liebe Julia bitten, mir zu schreiben, ob du etwas von der Sache weisst. So lässt mir keine Ruhe, weil ich nicht weis, ob mein Bruder lebt und wie es ihm geht. Ich habe an das Konsulat in Argentinien geschrieben, aber auch dort weis man nichts von ihm. Auch an deinen Onkel Johann Gründl habe ich einen eingeschriebenen Brief geschickt ohne Antwort zu bekommen. Nun wende ich mich an dich und bitte dich, sei doch so gut und schreibe mir, was du weisst. Vielleicht erfahre ich doch noch, wie es meinem Bruder geht, ich wäre dir sehr dankbar dafür. Liebe Julia wie geht es den dir? hoffentlich doch recht gut. Wie groß ist denn deine Familie? Wie gehts den deiner Schwester Lisl? ist sie auch verheiratet? Schreibe mir doch einen grossen ausführlichen Brief, ich erwarte ihn mit Sehnsucht. Hoffentlich kannst dich noch meine erinnern, weisst dein Onkel Josef, der dir zur ersten hl. Kommunion dein weisses Kleid geschenkt hat. Ich will nun schliefen in der sicheren Hoffnung recht bald von dir zu hören.

Herzlich grüsst Dich nebst Deiner Familie
Dein Onkel Josef Berger mit Familie

My dear niece Julia

I heard from my sister Elizabeth that your mother told her that my brother George was together with your father. It appears that your father died but I don't know when or where. I beg you Julia to write to me if you can clear up this situation. I had no peace because I don't know if my brother lives or how he is. I wrote to the consulate in Argentina but there they do not know anything about him.

I also wrote a registered letter to your Uncle Johann Gruendl without an answer. Now I turn to you. Please be so kind and write to me and tell me what you know. Maybe I gets to know how my brother is. I would be very grateful to you.

Dear Julia, how are you after all? I hope you are very well. How is your big family? How is your sister Lisl? Is she married? Please write me a long extensive letter. I wait for it in great longing. I hope that he can still remember me. Remember your uncle Josef who bought the white dress for your First Holy Communion. I will close now in the sure hope to hear from you in the very soon

Heartiest greetings to you and your family

Your Uncle Josef Berger and family

My dear niece Julie and relatives:

We have waited a full year for the promised pictures and letters from you without success. Why? I was looking forward to them so much. We let all our relatives read your letter from 1929 but I believe none of them have written to you because none of them have an interest in it. At first I have sad news to tell you. On the 9th of January your Uncle Alois died. He was still working on New Year's Eve, but in that night he fell sick and never recovered. He leaves behind a widow with 6 children. Christmas 1928 we celebrated their silver wedding anniversary.Doris' (?) eldest daughter Zanzi married one year ago.....their second daughter Maria is in Pirmasenz in Holle.....their son, 22 years old is a blacksmith and still at home.....Their daughter Emma is 20 years old, Bertha is 17 years old and last in the row, Josef is 15 years old.

She has her own house in Neufahrn near Poing and 6 acres(tagewerk) of land. A shame about my brother, he was my favorite one.

Uncle Hans is in Straubing in a senior's home to be looked after. His 2 sons robbed him of all his money. This old sick father who has only one leg - they deserted him. Your Auntie Susi lost her husband two years ago and lost her only son in the war. She had only 2 children. The daughter died at the age of 9. She lives up in the Castle Rhebrg that was where her husband worked as a carpenter.

Your auntie Maria has been stricken with rheumatism 8 years ago. She can barely walk and where we sit her down, there she must stay. They still live in Chigen/in (Chigen on the River). Her oldest son George died in the war. Three daughters are married, all the other children are still at home. There were also a goodish amount of children and now there are grandchildren coming this way, the house is never empty.

Your Uncle Peter lives in Graz and is a forester. He has 2 sons, both in the forestry business. The oldest is married and has 2 children. The youngest is still at home.

Your Uncle Martin lives in Neu Otting. He lost his wife through death and also a son in the war. His daughter Resi is married in Neu Otting. Uncle married a second time and she had a son aged 22. So my dear Julia, now you know about your Uncles and Aunts (the most important things).

About us, I can tell you that we married in 1899. We have 3 children. Our oldest daughter, Josefa is 32 years old and has been married for 6 years to a Senior Security Officer. She is well and has no children. Our son Willie is 30 years old and still single. He is a _____ and he travels around the world. We have been waiting since Christmas for him to visit us but at the moment he is in Rome.

8) Regenwetter Reunions

The first "unofficial" reunion was held on July 13, 1986 in British Columbia. It was the year of Expo. Catherine, Theresa, Kathleen, and family would be visiting with Catherine's daughter Sharon. The story has it that Catherine send a letter to Marlene and Denny that she and Theresa would be visiting in BC. Denny purchased plane tickets and then advised Marlene that they were going on a trip to visit with the Aunts. Once there, they discovered that Catherine had also notified Agnes who would also be attending. Catherine's wish was for a family get-together. Dorothy convinced Keith into flying. He arrived on the 12th as did Agnes. On Sunday the 13th the family got together at the home of Sharon and Harold Swift. Everyone departed on the 14th for their respective homes. Denny notes that "we weren't there for a long time, but we had a good time". Little did Catherine know that her plan for a "get-together" would spur family members on to hosting future family reunions on a much larger scale.

Around Christmas of 1986, mention of a family reunion to be hosted in Black Diamond was discussed. Thoughts and discussion went by the wayside until April 1991. At this time, Keith was attending a family thrown retirement party. It was decided that his "retirement project" would be to plan the next reunion. It was held at Black Diamond in 1993. This was the largest attended reunion of them all.

The third reunion was held at Buck Creek Alberta in 1996. Sources relay that it rained quite a bit and many of the activities had to be held indoors. A few photos are available of these so called "activities". Planning began for the "millennium" reunion to be held in Saskatchewan.

So here we are in the year 2000 celebrating our family's heritage. The location takes us back to the "roots of our family", at Englefeld Saskatchewan, a few miles from Romance, Saskatchewan where our memories begin. At this reunion, the memories will continue.
